

Tomorrow Will Be Better

Purpose	To raise awareness for youth mental health and to raise money for Kids-Help Phone to assist in youth mental health.
Event	An event in the 300-person Summitt Suite at the Rogers Centre during a Toronto Blue Jays vs. The Kansas City Royals on Saturday September 9 th , 2023.
Impact	Several hundred grade 11 and grade 12 students attended the event to raise money, talk about mental health and enjoy the Toronto Blue Jays defeat the Kansas City Royals.
Monies generated for charity	Generated a profit of $45,000 donated to Kids Help Phone.
Legacy	Edward's brother, Jack Rogers, will continue the event September 2024. It is hoped to hand down the event to future leaders in grade 12 at Upper Canada College to continue the event.
Support letter	Jane Connell is getting Edward a letter from Kids Help Phone for his application.

Sunday Best Toronto

Purpose	Edward has worked for three years to assist the Beswick family, who founded the Sunday Best Toronto event, which has generated several hundred thousand of donations for many charities.
Event	They host a brunch charity gala on a Sunday in mid September. Several hundred people are in attendance.
Impact	Raise funds, raise awareness, and enjoy a brunch gala together.
Monies generated for charity	Including the 2023 event Sunday Best has generated over $300,000 for POGO, Kids Help Phone and others.
Legacy	Edward, his brother Jack and the Beswick family will continue this tradition for the foreseeable future.
Support letter	Jack Beswick is doing up a letter for Edward.

The Constantine Yorkville Run

Purpose	Edward got involved in the Constantine Yorkville Run in 2018 and has run in six races.
Event	The Constantine Yorkville Run is an annual 5 km run to raise money for a collection of different charities.
Impact	Edward has supported the Penelope Neuroblastoma Foundation, a charity that was set up after the death of Penelope Rai, a friend of Edward's, at only five years old. A total of over $750,000 has been raised for the Penelope Neuroblastoma Foundation since the run started.
Monies generated for charity	Edward has raised over $110,000 personally as a runner for the Penelope Neuroblastoma Foundation since 2018. He has been the race's largest run raiser three of those years.
Legacy	Edward, his brother Jack and many other family and friends will continue to participate in the Constantine Yorkville Run for many years to come.
Support letter	Robert Hiscox is working on a letter for Edward. It will come from the Director of the Run.

Other Community Activities

- Upper Canada College Grade 12 Prefect
- Co-founder of the Chess Club at Upper Canada for grade 12